

The British and French in North America

Name _____

Use this map of the British and French in North America in 1750 to answer the questions.

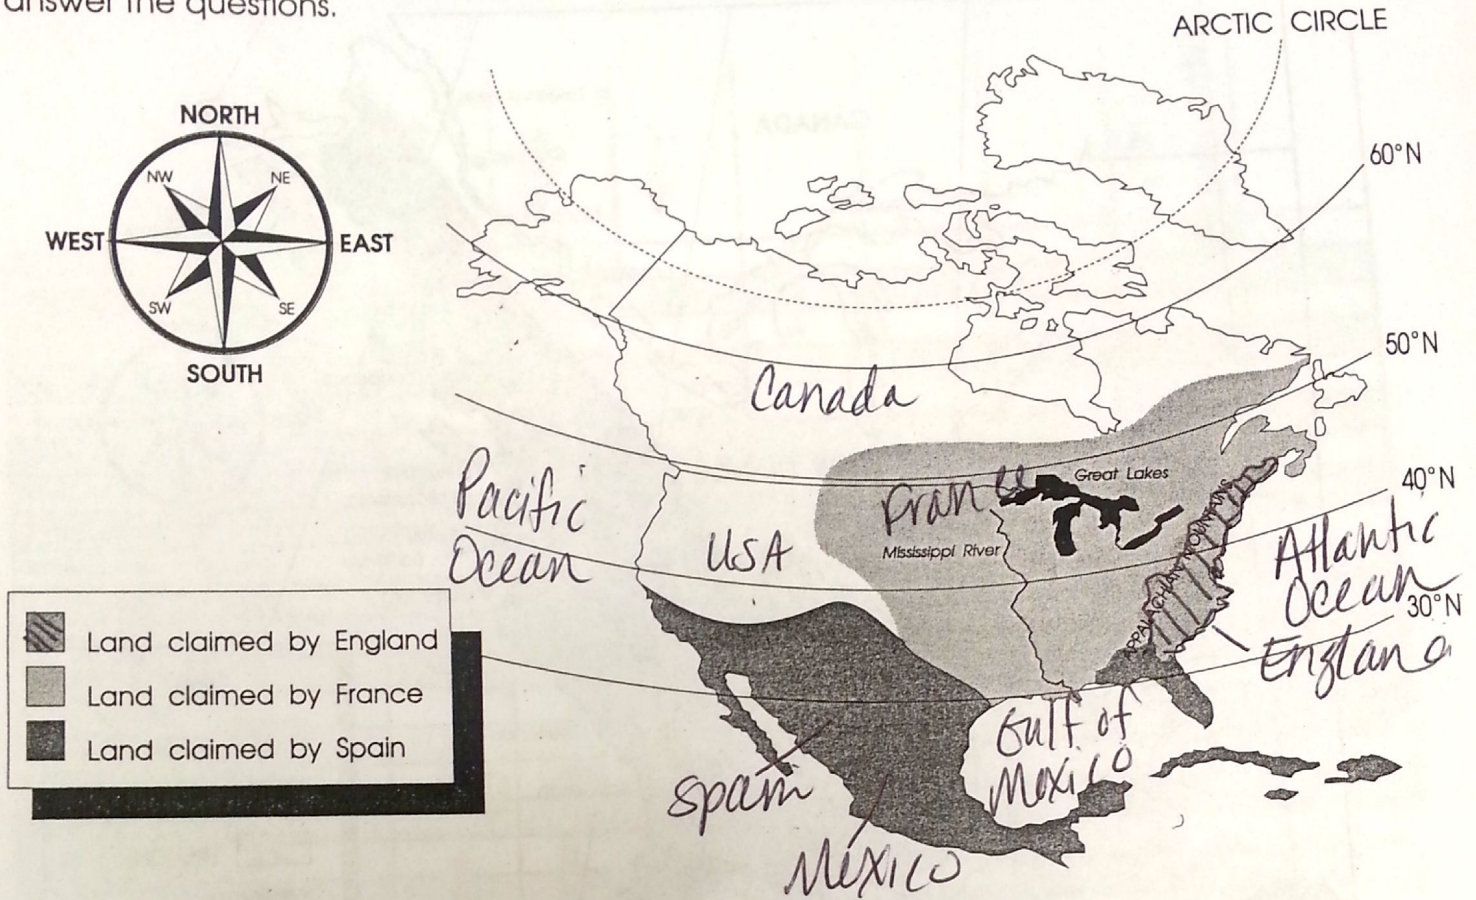

- Does this map show the eastern or western part of the United States? _____
- The British colonies are east of the _____ Mountains.
- New Orleans is in the territory claimed by _____.
- Charleston is located on the _____ longitude line.
- Which French settlement is shown on the Mississippi River? _____
- The British settlement of _____ is located at 82°W longitude.
- New France is _____ of the Appalachian Mountains.
- Name the British settlements located between 70°W and 80°W longitude.

- Were Montreal and Quebec French or British settlements? _____

Europeans Come to North America

Name _____

Use this map showing land claims around 1700 and a political map of North America to answer the questions.

1. Name three countries who claimed land in North America. _____
2. Did England claim land south of 30°N latitude? _____
3. Did the English settle land east or west of the Appalachian Mountains? _____
4. _____ claimed land west of the Mississippi River.
5. _____ settled the land around the Great Lakes.
6. Which European country settled Florida? _____
7. Which country settled the southwestern part of the United States? _____
8. The land in southern Canada was claimed by _____
9. All of the land in Mexico was claimed by _____
10. Outline the land claimed by each European country with a different color.
11. Label the following countries: Canada, United States, Mexico.
12. Label these bodies of water: Gulf of Mexico, Pacific Ocean, Atlantic Ocean.

